Executive Summary

Hello! This is your Scan Report for October 04, 2026. We analyzed 26249 stocks across global markets using our Trend Score system — think of it like a health checkup that measures 5 vital signs for each stock. The big picture: 20 stocks are gaining strength, while 0 are weakening. Your top 3 opportunities this period are 7510.T (74.4/100, ¥2,831), 7619.T (74.3/100, ¥1,001), HAFN (73.1/100, $10.25). 20 stocks scored in our 'Strong' zone (70+) — these are the standouts worth a closer look. Below we explain what each score means in plain English, show you the full rankings, and give you practical guidance on what to do with this information.

How to read this report:

- Trend Score (0-100) — Higher = stronger signal. Think of 70+ as an 'A' grade, 55-69 as 'B', 40-54 as 'C'.
- Price & Market Cap — What the stock costs and the company's total value. Larger companies tend to be more stable.
- Score Zone — Green = Strong, Blue = Good, Orange = Watch, Red = Caution.
- Sector — Which industry the company operates in (Tech, Healthcare, Energy, etc.)

Important: These scores are based on data and algorithms — they are NOT buy/sell recommendations. Always consider your own financial situation, do additional research, and ideally consult a financial advisor before making investment decisions.
